(Birdem Med J 2013; 3(2): 124)

Letters to editor

I have gone through your journal (Vol.-3, No.-1, 2013). The get up is impressive. To my surprise I saw spelling mistakes and mistakes in sentence building in review article” Focused diagnostic approach to a patient with fever of unknown origin (FUO): a review.. I hope a journal like BIRDEM MEDICAL JOURNAL would take care in future of this critical mistakes. With best wishes and good luck to BIRDEM MEDICAL JOURNAL.

Editor’s view and response

Thanks for the eagerness and inspiring enthusiasm you have shown to our journal.. Our aim is to make it collections of different articles of all disciplines of medical and allied sciences. Needless to say, all these are needed for a class journal with quality articles. We hope with all your help to reach our dream of a quality journal with best edited articles. Hope to have next issue with best possible means of correction thanking you again.

I have gone through your journal (Vol. 3, No. 1, 2013). The get up is impressive. I have the pleasure to inform you I have the opportunity to go through most of the articles. I was surprised to see mistakes in sentence building and paragraph setting in “INFORMATION FOR AUTHORS”. There was repetition of reference in case report “Solid pseudopapillary tumor of pancreas”. I hope a journal like BIRDEM MEDICAL JOURNAL would take care in future of this critical mistakes. With best wishes and good luck to BIRDEM MEDICAL JOURNAL.
