

From July to December a lot of scientific papers were presented by doctors of BIRDEM in local and international conferences.

1. Dr. Sarwar Iqbal and Dr. Tabassum Samad had presentations at Annual Conferences of Bangladesh Renal Association and National Kidney Foundation. Dr. Tabassum Samad was awarded the award of “Best Paper” for her presentation titled “Uncommon Causes of Community Acquired Acute Kidney Injury” by the Bangladesh Renal Association.
2. Prof. Khwaja Nazim Uddin presented “Melioidosis in Bangladesh” in Moscow in European Congress of Internal Medicine. Dr. Samira Rahat Afroze had poster presentation on “Deceptive presentation of Infections Mimicking Tuberculosis” in the same congress.
3. In annual conference of Bangladesh Society of Critical Care Medicine, 4 papers were presented by Dr. Sarwar Iqbal, Dr. Mehruba Alam Ananna and Dr. Tifayel Ahmed Chowdhury.
4. Prof. Khwaja Nazim Uddin presented “Melioidosis in Bangladesh: An Update” and Dr. Muhammad Abdur Rahim presented “Histoplasmosis: Truly Uncommon or Uncommonly Diagnosed in Bangladesh?” at 4th International Conference of Bangladesh Toxicology Society and Bangladesh Association for Advancement in Tropical Medicine at Cox’s Bazar.
5. At the annual conference of Bangladesh Endocrine Society, there were a good number of participations and presentations from BIRDEM.
6. At IDF, there were also significant number of participations and 3 papers were presented by Prof. Faruq Pathan, Dr. SM Ashrafuzzaman and Dr. Feroz Amin.