BIRDEM Med J 2023; 13(1): 62

This peer reviewed journal is an important assortment of different articles related to various disciplines of medicine and allied sciences. It welcomes original articles, review articles, meta-analysis, systematic reviews and case reports. It expects and appreciates the contribution of physicians and allied professionals of different medical/scientific institutions from home and abroad. Anyone can go through the articles by browsing www.birdemmedj.org. Our ISSN is print 2305-3712, on-line 2305- 3720. The journal is registered to Bangladesh Medical and Dental Council (BMDC) and enrolled to BanglaJOL. Authors can submit manuscripts on-line. The statistics of our online viewers is enthusiastic and very much encouraging. BIRDEM Medical Journal is in its 13th year of publication. We have to increase the number of original articles for last few issues as we have available good manuscripts. It is indeed an encouraging response from readers and authors. This proves endorsement of quality, peer reviewing and needless to say, the timely publication of the journal. In spite of waning off the COVID-19 pandemic, the long-term consequences are causing considerable morbidity among survivors. Editorial comments in this issue is added in this current issue.

We feel tremendously buoyed by our readers' participation and their responses from all over the globe. We are very much thankful to our online readers. We also express our pristine appreciation and gratefulness to the authors who bolster our hope immensely and enrich the journal aptly with valuable articles. The editorial and advisory boards are eagerly looking forward to your valuable criticism, advices and recommendations to improve our endeavor. Eagerly waiting for your new manuscripts.
