

This peer reviewed journal is an important assortment of different articles related to various disciplines of medicine and allied sciences. It welcomes original articles, review articles, systematic reviews and meta-analysis and case reports. It expects and appreciates the contribution of physicians and allied professionals of different medical and scientific institutions from home and abroad. Anyone can go through the articles by browsing www.birdemmedj.org. Our ISSN is print 2305-3712 and on-line 2305-3720. The journal is registered to Bangladesh Medical and Dental Council (BMDC) and enrolled to BanglaJOL. Authors can submit manuscripts on-line through www.birdemmedj.org or can mail as attachments through email to: editor.birdemmedj@gmail.com. The statistics of our online viewers is enthusiastic and very much encouraging.

BIRDEM Medical Journal is in its 14th year of publication. We have to increase the numbers of articles for last few issues, as we have available good manuscripts. It is indeed an encouraging response from readers and authors. This proves endorsement of quality, peer reviewing and needless to say, the timely publication of the journal. Global warming, climate change, heat related health problems, specially, the current heat wave is a great concern. These issues are addressed in editorial of this current issue.

We feel tremendously buoyed by our readers' participation and their responses from all over the globe. We are very much thankful to our online readers. We also express our pristine appreciation and gratefulness to the authors who bolster our hope immensely and enrich the journal aptly with valuable articles. The editorial board is eagerly looking forward to your valuable criticism, advices and recommendations to improve our endeavour. We are eagerly waiting for your new manuscripts.
