

Editorial

It is my great privilege to declare that the dedicated team members of Bangladesh Academy of Dentistry International have worked hard to publish Volume.03 No.02, July, 2013, the seventh issue of Bangladesh Journal of Dental research & Education with its ISSN # 2225-9015 (Print). Besides, we have added another ISSN # 2308-9733 (Online) in our journey to excellence. Besides, to add another feather in our flock of success we have achieved recognition by Bangladesh Medical & Dental Council (BM & DC) and also we have a portal by our journal's name (Bangladesh Journal of Dental Research & Education) on Bangladesh Journal Online (BanglaJOL) as we are publishing our journal on-line. My heartfelt gratitude to all the contributors, who made our journal a standard one. The publication of the present issue, Volume. 03 No.02, will further encourage others who are still in doubt about our endeavors. Besides, I would like to thank each & every members, well wishers of Bangladesh Academy of Dentistry International (BADI), and paper publishers of this journal for their outstanding support & contributing. We hope & also committed to keep our international standards and also would like to set a path to bring excellence to the field of dentistry especially in prospect of Bangladesh. We also believe that you will find this journal a valuable media to publish and share your clinical techniques and academic knowledge on dental research and education as others have found so.

I thank all the members of Bangladesh Academy of Dentistry International (BADI), Editorial Members of Bangladesh Journal of Dental research & Education and all the valuable contributors both from home and abroad for their sincere co-operation for the fulfillment of the responsibility entrusted upon me as an Editor-in-Chief of this official publication.

Finally, I want to wish you all, wherever you are, a happy & prosperous journey in the field of Dental research & Education in Bangladesh with the publication of "Bangladesh Journal of Dental Research & Education"
