

Obituary

Dr. Brig Gen Masudur Rahman Khan
(1944 – 2012)

Brig Gen M. R. Khan was born on January 28, 1944 at Magura. He did Matriculation in 1959 from Nakole High School, Magura and ISC (Dhaka University) from Jagonnath College, Dhaka in 1961. He passed MBBS from Dhaka Medical College in 1967. He joined Pakistan Military as Lt in 1969. Mr. Khan completed DLO from IPGMR, Dhaka in 1975 and had pre fellowship training and course on ENT and General Surgery at the Institute of Laryngology and Otology, Royal National Ear, Nose and Throat Hospital, University of London and Royal College of Surgeons, England and Royal Marsden Guy's Hospital Landon from January 1980 to October 1980. Dr. Khan passed surgical Fellowship Examination in November 1980 and awarded the degree of FRCS from Royal College of Physician and Surgeons, Glasgow, UK on February 1981. He earned FICS from International College of Surgeons, USA in 2000. He had post fellowship training as Register in otolaryngology, micro surgery, head & neck surgery at Royal Halifax Infirmary, UK from January 1981 to December 1981 under National Health services, UK. He also had advanced training at John Hopkins University Hospital, USA on Endoscopic Sinus Surgery (FESS), Laser Surgery and Head Neck Cancer Surgery from July 1989 to October 1989.

Late Brig Gen (Retd) Md Masudur Rahman Khan was one of the pioneer micro ear surgeons in Bangladesh. He devoted his life for the development of various aspect of ENT – Head & Neck Surgery in our country. He established GK Ideal Degree College, Komlapur, Magura in 1994. He also established Marks ENT and General Hospital Ltd, Marks Technical College, Marks Dental College and Marks Medical College, at Mirpur-14, Dhaka.

He died on February 08, 2012 remaining his wife, two sons, two daughters, many friends and well wishers to mourn his death. The Society of Otolaryngologists & Head Neck Surgeons of Bangladesh expressed deep shock at his early death. May Almighty Allah rest his soul in peace!