

College News

CPD Programme

Continuing professional development is the process of life-long learning in practice. It helps the medical professionals to keep them up-to-date to meet the needs of the patient and health care services and to improve their knowledge, skill and attitude.

Enam Medical College arranges CPD programmes regularly. In the year 2010, total 40 seminars were held. Around 300 students, doctors and teachers attended each of these seminars.

Special Seminars

Two special seminars were held in the year 2010.

1. Vitamin D and nonskeletal health. Role of vitamin D beyond calcium metabolism and recent evidence of its association with cardiovascular disease, cancer and neurological disease.

Speaker: Dr. Iftekhar Ullah, Associate Professor, Department of Internal Medicine, University of Mississippi, USA

Chairperson: Prof. Abdul Mannan Sikder, Principal, Enam Medical College Savar, Dhaka

2. Management of rheumatoid arthritis

Speakers: Dr. Md. Nazrul Islam, Associate Professor, Department of Rheumatology, BSMMU, Dhaka

Dr. Rukhsana Parvin, Assistant Professor, Department of Medicine, Enam Medical College, Savar, Dhaka

Chairperson: Prof. A. K. M. Rafique Uddin, Professor & Head, Department of Medicine, Enam Medical College, Savar, Dhaka

Scientific Presentation

Dr. Md. Aminul Haque Khan, Associate Professor & Head, Department of Biochemistry, Enam Medical College, Savar, Dhaka presented a paper titled 'Serum creatinine and uric acid levels in hypothyroid patients' in a scientific session in Khulna Medical College in March 2010. The scientific session was organized by Bangladesh Society of Pathologists.