

Obituary

Prof. M Aftabuddin

Professor Mohammad Aftabuddin, 61, died on 1st June 2017 at Bangladesh time 11 pm in Toronto General Hospital during his treatment of Hepatocellular carcinoma. After completion of his funeral he was buried in Canada. At the time of his death, he left one daughter and wife with lots of well-wishers.

He was born on March 02, 1956 in Purura, Bhaluka, Mymensingh. He was graduated (MBBS) from Mymensingh Medical College in 1982, had completed Master of surgery (MS) in Cardio-vascular and Thoracic Surgery from National Institute of Cardiovascular Diseases in 1991. He did his PhD from Okayama University, Japan in 1995. He had 92 publications both in international and national journals including indexed and non-indexed.

He joined BSMMU on 18-11-2003, and Chairman of Cardiac Surgery department of Bangabandhu Sheikh Mujib Medical University (BSMMU). He joined in BSMMU on 18-11-2003 & was the founder of the Cardiac Surgery department. He was also the founder Chairman of the department & served in that position for 11 years. He was the life member of Bangladesh Cardiac Society, Bangladesh Cardiovascular and Thoracic Surgical Association and Bangladesh Society of Chest Diseases.

He passed most of his time doing many social works. He was member of Rotary Club of Dhaka North-South and Past President of Rotary Club of Dhaka South.